DELTA

Welcome

to the 2027 range of Delta Holiday Homes

Our philosophy at Delta is to give our customers what they want, when they want it, at an affordable price.

We have added some new additions to the range for 2027, The Beverley Lodge and the Saffron Wheelchair Option. The Beverley Lodge built to BS3632 full residential specification and features front sliding patio doors and a light and spacious interior , great value for anyone. The Saffron Wheelchair Option has all the great features you would expect from the Saffron but now in a wheelchair accessible caravan.

The Belgravia is built to BS3632 fully residential spec designed in partnership with Sally Ann McCoy of Edwards McCoy. It has a beautiful fresh look with a light neutral country style interior they certainly add a touch of class to the Delta range.

The Athena lodge was new for 2025 season, with its studio apartment feel and a stunning modern exterior look the Athena Lodge continues to be a popular model within the range.

The Asmara has a very light and airy feel to the lounge and kitchen area you feel like you're sitting at home with no compromising on space, and all at amazing value for money.

The Avalon range gives value for money across a full range of ten-foot and twelve-foot layouts we are sure there will be a layout to suit most requirements, we have introduced an alternate upholstery option to give a second softer look to the Avalon.

The Saffron deluxe is a very affordable unit with a clean modern feel , free standing furniture and integrated fridge freezer and microwave makes this unit real value for money.

The Superior and the Superior deluxe are still a very popular model within the Delta range now with a more updated modern feel with a touch of luxury with many extras all built into an affordable price. The Superior and Superior deluxe show that a design can work year after year and with their new look they are even more in with the modern day needs from a luxury Holiday home.

The whole Delta range for 2027 has been created for customers to enjoy quality at an affordable price and give Delta Caravans a range to be proud of.
